PAINT LICK LADY WRITES THANKS

For the Great Benefit That Cardui the Woman's Tonic, Was to Her When Sick.

Paint Lick, Ky.—"I suffered so much from womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Mary Freeman, of Paint Lick, Ky., "before I commenced to take Cardui.

"I was so weak from it, that I was down on my back nearly all the time.

"I have taken three bottles of Cardui and it has done me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life.

"I can't possibly praise it too highly, it has done so much for me and I will do all I can to help you for I think it is the only medicine on earth that will cure female troubles."

You need not be afraid to try Cardui, for in doing so you are making no new experiment in drug dosing or in tablets of concentrated mineral ingredients.

Cardui as a medicine, as a tonic for weak, tired, worn-out women, is time-tested, safe, reliable. It has helped others and should certainly help you.

Composed of gentle-acting, herb ingredients, its action is mild and natural and it has no bad after-effects, as have many of the powerful drugs, sometimes recommended.

Try it.

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and thick clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and gives a clean, healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never drine. Easy to take as candy.

How Women Can Keep Youthful and Interesting

BY ELIA WHEELER WELCH.
(Copyright, 1910, by the New York Evening Journal Publishing Company.)

You are a young married woman, in your prime. Your husband thinks you charming, and life is full of interest for you both. But time is speeding by, and before you realize it the fact that you will be a thing of the past. That is, if you are doing nothing to retain it, nothing to make yourself more attractive with the passing of the years.

No one ever remains stationary. We are constantly going forward or falling backward.

Our entire bodies are being changed by medical science, change completely every seven years.

It is the nature of man to admire what is beautiful in woman.

Not one man in one hundred is satisfied to see his wife grow old and homely and unattractive as the years go by. If he seems to be satisfied with such a change in her, he is nevertheless observing other women who are more attractive, and mentally comparing his wife with them.

Early youth is not the only season when a woman is lovely and full of charm.

Fascinations of Maturity.—Maturity has its fascinations, as well as adolescence, and age itself can be made beautiful.

When you note the first fading of your early bloom, do not consider that your day has passed, and settle down into a stolid, phlegmatic state of life. Do not let your husband be going to bed with a "de-lich-ted" to-day to receive the message from his wife.

"I made me realize just how much I had lost, and I am getting," he said, with a laugh.

Regarding his hunt, Mr. Roosevelt said: "I expected a bully time, but it has been several times more pleasant than I anticipated. Twenty years from now it will be impossible to have such a hunt."

The colonel, Kermit and others of the hunting expedition sailed to-day for Mongolia, the first leg of the trip having been completed.

When notified that a committee of Westerners would meet him in Khartum in an effort to get him to return to the United States by way of the Pacific coast, the ex-President shook his head.

"I want to get home as quickly as possible," he said. "When I was in the jungle I did not really permit myself to think of home or business. But now that the hunt is practically over I am getting anxious to see Sandy."

"My plans for visiting Berlin, Paris and London have been made for months, and I have no thought of changing them now."

Mr. Roosevelt was really and truly a "de-lich-ted" to-day to receive the message from his wife.

London, February 28.—Sir John Knill, Lord Mayor of London, in an interview to-day concerning the visit of Ex-President Roosevelt here, said: "The man is more deserving of the highest honor which this city can afford, and if the London corporation decides upon a welcome, the city will be proud to have him."

My first idea was to entertain the ex-President at the Mansion House, but I soon realized that such a reception would be on too small a scale altogether."

Druggists say that

King of External Preparations, will do all that is claimed for it. It is absolutely certain that if our claims were not well founded the popularity of the wonderful remedy would not increase in the astounding proportion that it does. From everywhere come most encouraging letters; sales are multiplying and while your money will be refunded cheerfully if our Preparation fails to do what we claim for it, it is a singular thing that instead of wanting their money back, patrons want more of the great External Preparation. Ask for it and buy TO-DAY. Have it in the home. Winter weather is on you, and you do not know what will happen to-night. Take no substitute; your druggist keeps it, and there is nothing made "just as good." Demand Gowan's—use Gowan's, and you will get results.

Three Sizes: $1.00, 50c, 25c.

GOWANS

Have recommended Gowan's Preparation for Sore Throat, Congested Lungs, stuffy nose, Sprains, and any Soreness or inflammatory condition, and have been disappointed in results.

War is declared on long hats.

Chicago City Council Gravely Discusses Danger Lurking in Their Use.

WAR IS DECLARED ON LONG HATS

Chicago City Council Gravely Discusses Danger Lurking in Their Use.

Chicago, Ill., February 28.—Chicago's City Council to-night formally took up and deliberated upon the following questions:

Are women's long hats, with menace to noses, eyes and faces of other people, a public nuisance?

"Ought women, despite the danger of hats, to be allowed to wear them for self-protection?"

Alderman Herman J. Bauer introduced an order requiring the corporation counsel to draw up an ordinance restricting the length of hats worn in public places.

"We have an ordinance prohibiting the wearing of large hats in theatres," declared Alderman Bauer. "I am going to teach the women of Chicago that they must stop wearing pins a foot and a half long."

Grave silence hovered over the deliberation of women crowded in the galleries. Then a female voice piped out: "Doesn't your wife wear long hats?"

"No, you bet she doesn't," she would not do such a thing," shouted Alderman Bauer. "Oh, you women of Chicago, don't you ever consider when you get into a crowded street car with your long hats that you are endangering the faces of all us men?"

The women had prepared an answer, and as soon as the Alderman sat down the Council clerk read a letter, which spread on the Council minutes. The letter was signed by May E. Davis. It read:

"In behalf of myself and thousands of other women in Chicago who are occasionally on the streets after dark, I want to state that I am in favor of the proposition to curtail the use of hats. A hatpin is a woman's weapon of defense. Thousands of women can speak from their experience of how a stout hatpin has been an effective defense in time of danger."

The Council clerk then rang with applause from the women's gallery after the reading of the letter.

After Mayor Buss had pounded his gavel for order Alderman Bauer's resolution was referred to a committee.

URGES EDUCATIONAL REFORM

President Declines for More Thoroughness in Building Branches.

Washington, February 28.—Reform in primary education in the United States was declared to be a necessity by the President in an address to-night at a banquet of the University Club of Washington.

The attention of the President had been called to the failures of applicants for admission to West Point and Annapolis by Representative Clark, of Missouri, who in an address to the club stated that the applicants fail on rudimentary subjects.

"I agree with the gentleman from Missouri," said President Taft, "that primary education in this country should be more thorough, and on that subject I must say that he is nearer right than he has been for a long time."

"I believe that the ambition of school superintendents throughout the country, who have charge of primary and secondary education, have led us into a lack of thoroughness that we ought to reform. It is true that applicants for admission to West Point and Annapolis fail in many instances on subjects that every school boy ought to know. They cannot spell, and are deficient in other rudimentary branches."

The President spoke also upon the value of university men in the affairs of government, and praised the college men who are serving the government at a financial sacrifice, because they believed "there is something more in life than money and luxury."

"I believe we are passing through a period," the President said, in turning to national affairs, "when we need a normal thinking, where the sensitive condition of the public is likely to lead it into hysteria, a period where the public must be brought to sane thinking and common sense. I do not know of any class of men more charged with that than the university men."
